vs.)	TENTATIVE FINDINGS
LESLIE C. ONEAL,)
Defendant.)

The Court has received the Presentence Investigation Report ("PSR"), the Defendant's objections thereto (Filing No. 31), and the Defendant's motion for deviation or variance (Filing No. 29). The government adopted the PSR (Filing No. 28). See Order on Sentencing Schedule, ¶ 6. The Court advises the parties that these Tentative Findings are issued with the understanding that, pursuant to United States v. Booker, 543 U.S. 220 (2005), the sentencing guidelines are advisory.

The Defendant objects to the 2-level enhancement in ¶ 25 under U.S.S.G. § 2D2.2(b)(3)(F) for distribution of the material in question. The objection will be heard at sentencing, and the government has the burden of proof by a preponderance of the evidence.

The Defendant's motion for deviation or variance will be heard at sentencing.

IT IS ORDERED:

1. The Defendant's objections to the PSR (Filing No. 31) will be heard at sentencing;
2. If any party wishes to challenge these tentative findings, the party shall immediately file in the court file and serve upon opposing counsel and the Court a motion challenging these tentative findings, supported by (a) such evidentiary materials as are required (giving due regard to the requirements of the local rules of practice respecting the submission of evidentiary materials), (b) a brief as to the law, and (c) if an evidentiary hearing is requested, a statement describing why an evidentiary hearing is necessary and an estimated length of time for the hearing;

3. Absent submission of the information required by paragraph 2 of this Order, my tentative findings may become final;

4. Unless otherwise ordered, any motion challenging these tentative findings shall be resolved at sentencing; and

5. The Defendant's motion for deviation or variance (Filing No. 29) will be heard at sentencing.

DATED this 9th day of December, 2010.
